ii. At the discretion of the officials, a player can be asked to sit out for a specified period of time due to unsafe play or continued infractions
b. $7 & 8,9 & 10,11 & 12$ and $13 & 14$ year old leagues will all have fouls and penalties called as outlined in the OSSAA basketball rule book
i. Penalties called will include but are not limited to traveling, double dribbling, pushing, tripping, grabbing, reaches in on the ball and fouls on the shot.
ii. When a team receives their $7^{\text {th }}$ collective foul in a half, the opposing team will enter the "bonus" and receive a free throw. If that free throw is missed, the basketball will be live. If that free throw is made, a second free throw is awarded. If the second free throw is missed, the basketball will be live. If it is made, the ball will switch possession under the goal.
iii. When a team receives their $10^{\text {th }}$ collective foul in a half, the opposing team will enter the "double bonus" and receive two free throws. If the second free throw is missed, the basketball will be live. If it is made, the ball will switch possession under the goal.
iv. A foul on the shot will result in free throws awarded to the player who was fouled. If the player was shooting inside the 3 point line, then 2 free throws will be awarded. If the player was shooting outside the 3 point line, then 3 free throws will be awarded.
v. Any player who receives their $5^{\text {th }}$ foul will sit out the remainder of the game
c. A technical or flagrant foul on a player, coach or spectator may be called at the discretion of the sports official
i. This foul will result in two free throw awarded to the opposing team, and then possession of the ball given to the opposing team.
ii. This awarding of the ball also will result in the possession arrow being reset to give the next awarded possession to the other team not receiving the ball after the foul.
d. If a second technical foul is charged to a player, coach or spectator in the course of the game, that person will be ejected from the game and will be suspended from their next scheduled game.

XIX. TOURNAMENTS

a. A tournament will be offered for various age groups as noted on the registration form for each season. The tournaments will vary in length, duration and structure
b. During tournaments, a game that is tied at the end of regulation will move into an overtime period:
i. The overtime period will be 3 minutes long with a continuous running clock.
ii. If the score is still tied at the end of the first overtime period, another overtime period of 2 minutes will be played, during which there will be a continuous running clock.
iii. If the score is still tied, another over time period of 2 minutes will be played, during which there will be a continuous running clock. This will continue until an overtime period ends without a tie score.

XX. SPECTATORS

a. Spectators are not permitted on the court during games. In the event you are needed on the court, such as a player injury, the officials will signal for you to come onto the court.
b. At any time a spectator or coach is found violating the parents code of conduct, that spectator may be removed from the premises and have their attendance privileges revoked.

XXI. MISCELLANEOUS

a. The rules listed above will be the official playing rules for all YMCA of Greater Tulsa youth basketball
b. Games cannot be protested due to any circumstances. The ruling of the officials is final.
c. Games cannot be rescheduled due to a team's conflict with the posted schedule d. Team rosters must consist of more than 8 players and no more than 10 players except:
i. Team rosters may consist of 11 players when granted permission by the league coordinator
